

Oriel Square Limited: our company values.

- We value and see strength in diversity
- We are honest and constructive with each other and with our customers and associates. We welcome feedback and we give constructive feedback when asked
- We have zero tolerance of bribery, corruption and tax evasion and never take part in or facilitate any of them
- We believe our employees and associates are our greatest asset, and recognise our responsibility to support and help them to develop and learn
- We value good attendance at work and are committed to improving the general wellbeing and working environment of employees
- We don't do anything which interferes with or is likely to interfere with our independent exercise of judgement in Oriel Square's best interest
- We respect the confidentiality of our colleagues, clients and associates and take care of any data we look after on their behalf
- We expect acts of leadership at all levels from our employees and associates
- We support the universal declaration of human rights and oppose anything that contravenes them
- We are mindful of our impact on the environment and endeavour to minimise the impact of our operations on our surroundings
